A PPROACH OF SUMMER.
Cold winter's gone and past;
Sweet spring has come at last;
Though coy at first, like lady charmes,
With time the lassie will grow warmer.
But with flowers, and leaves, and sunny skies,
Come fleas and bod-bugs, ranches, ands, and floss.
For Lyon's Powders send—
Them we can recommend.
The Egyptian plagues had all been nullified
Had Lyon's flamous antidotes been tried.

READ AND BE WISE.—THE IRVING BUILDING PUBLIC MEETING.

on Thereday ovening, March 16, at Masonic Hall, No. 274 Grand street, near Forsyth street, at 7½ o'clock. An address will be delivered by W. T. B. MILLIKEN, ESQ., and others, explaining the objects and workings of these beneficial associations, and showing how a person can obtain a house which he may call his own, and which he can procure for the same money that he is now paying for rent, by paying the same amount in small sums monthly in this association. There is no place like home, when you become old; the force of which was never more folt than at the present time, when rents are so enormously high that it is almost impossible for a mechanic or laboring man te pay them. Herides, they grow higher from year to year. These facts are sufficiently important to induce every rent payer to secure a home of his own for his family. Persons who do not wish to obtain a house, by paying into this association, in some of 33 per month or $252, will, in a few years, receive $500 in return, with which they ean commance some small business, and thus achieve their own independence.
